

Task:

Make a React Query example page

Using the existing page navigation structure, add a new page that contains a small example of using React Query.

The goal is that other engineers can look at the page + source code to quickly see an example of how to use React Query and what the working code might look like.

Application

- Home
- Example: React Query

Example: React Query

This page shows an example of using React Query.

---